The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wuensch 3,727,874. Note a foldable stand 10 formed of a vertical planar board. Note also horizontal fold lines 11, easel panels 16, stabilizing base 18, elastic cord 26.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3, 6-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wuensch '874 in view of Maglione 5,620,104. Maglione '104 teach mounting openings 16 for the purpose of receiving mounting bars 100. (Note also the triangular shape of the base.) To provide Wuensch '974 with mounting holes as taught by Maglione for the purpose of receiving mounting bars would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention.

Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wuensch '874 in view of Friedman 5,540,335. Friedman '335 teach a foldable stand having slot openings 32. Note that the brackets are not positively claimed. To provide Wuensch with slot openings for the purpose of receiving supporting means as taught by

Art Unit: 3634

Friedman would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Similar foldable stands or racks are illustrated by Bosworth 5,782,452; Morrison 5,692,714; Smith 4,723,664; Ziemmerman 1,698,686; Ebert 2,474,659.

Applicant's response filed 8/29/05 have been considered but are considered moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
